

Community Resource Guide

If you are a community member looking for a service on post, or a leader who wishes to refer a Soldier to a specific place or program, then look no further than the Community Resource Guide, maintained by the Fort Hood Health Promotion Office. The Resource Guide is helpfully organized alphabetically by need, so that individuals are matched up with the appropriate resource. If you represent an organization or agency whose programs are not represented on the Resource Guide, or would like to update your program's information, simply send an e-mail to us at: hood.3c.healthpromotion@conus.army.mil.
