REGULATION
No. 60-1

2 January 1980

Exchange Service
UNIT EXCHANGE OPERATIONS AND MOBILE FOOD SERVICE

Local supplementation of this regulation is prohibited except upon approval of AFZF-PS-PX

1. PURPOSE. This regulation provides basic policy and procedures for Unit Exchange Operations on firing ranges and training areas for units on field maneuvers and exercises in the cantonment area.

2. RESPONSIBILITY. The Fort Hood Exchange Manager is responsible to the Installation Commander for providing, from available facilities, Post Exchange service to troops participating in field exercises.

3. TYPES OF SERVICE. Exchange operated food trucks will be permitted in the training areas, ranges, or for field exercises as noted in paragraph 3a(1) below. Retail merchandise will be available through use of the Unit Exchange Operations.

a. Mobile Food Trucks.

(1) When available, mobile food trucks will be furnished for field exercises, training areas, and ranges if specifically requested by the commander in charge.

(2) Requests for this service should be made in writing or by telephone. Address all written requests to AFZF-PS-PX or telephone the Food Activity Manager (685-5372 or 532-3233).

(3) A log will be kept of all telephone requests and written requests showing name of requestor, unit location of desired service, time/date of requested service, and troop strength.

(4) Under no circumstances will a mobile food truck stop to give food service on the ranges or training areas for impromptu request by personnel already in these areas.

(5) Mobile food truck service within the cantonment area is authorized on a normal basis, except that beer will not be placed on the trucks for sale before 1700 during weekdays. Beer is permitted for sale at any time on weekends and holidays within the cantonment area. Beer will not be made available to troops in training areas, ranges, or on field exercises.

(6) Trucks are equipped with two-way radios giving them the capability for timely response to urgent requests.

b. Unit Exchange Operation.

(1) The requesting unit will appoint, as additional duty, a Unit Exchange Officer.

(2) The Unit Exchange Officer will prepare a written request for Exchange Service to include all pertinent information.

(3) When available, the exchange will furnish a van (box) type unit that will fit on an unit furnished 2 1/2 ton 6 x 6 truck.

(4) The Unit Exchange Officer will report to Building 213, Retail Branch, to receive a briefing on the responsibilities. The Unit Exchange Officer will sign for all merchandise, equipment, and change fund supplies and will account for same upon completion. Method of operation, prices and accounting information will be supplied to assist the operation of the Unit Exchange.

*This regulation supersedes Regulation 60-1, 17 July 1979.
