Workplace harassment adversely affects the work environment by undermining productivity and professionalism, insults the dignity of workers, and may, depending on the extent and severity of the misconduct, violate civil rights laws. It is U. S. Army Garrison's policy to prohibit harassment in the workplace. All employees must refrain from engaging in harassing conduct.

b. For the purpose of this policy, harassment is defined as any unwelcome, verbal or physical conduct based on race, color, religion, genetic information, sex (whether or not of a sexual nature), national origin, age, disability, or retaliation, when:

(1) The conduct can reasonably be considered to adversely affect the work environment; or

(2) An employment decision affecting the employee is based on the employee's acceptance or rejection of such conduct.

c. Any person who believes that he or she has been the subject of an incident of harassing conduct in violation of this policy should report the incident to anyone in their supervisory chain or Equal Employment Officer.
