Information available at www.hood.army.mil/safety is consistent with:

- Army and DoD policies
- Army web site Management Policy (doc)
- Army Records Management Declassification Agency (Privacy Act, FOIA, etc.)
- Army Policy for Using Copyrighted Materials

www.hood.army.mil/safety is provided as a public service by the III Corps and Fort Hood Safety Offices.

Information presented on www.hood.army.mil/safety is considered public information and may be distributed or copied. Use of appropriate byline/photo/image credits is requested.

For site management, information is collected for statistical purposes only. This government computer system uses software programs to create summary statistics, which are used for such purposes as assessing what information is of most and least interest, determining technical design specifications, and identifying system performance or problem areas.

For site security purposes and to ensure that this service remains available to all users, this government computer system employs software programs to monitor network traffic to identify unauthorized attempts to upload or change information, or otherwise cause damage.

Except for authorized law enforcement investigations, no other attempts are made to identify individual users or their usage habits. Raw data logs are used for no other purposes and are scheduled for regular destruction in accordance with National Archives and Records Administration guidelines.

Unauthorized attempts to upload information or change information on this service are strictly prohibited and may be punishable under the Computer Fraud and Abuse Act of 1986 and the National Information Infrastructure Protection Act.
